

WALLER COUNTY WORKFORCE DATA

Since 2003 the Waller County Economic Development Partnership has helped create over 1500 high-paying jobs. We focus on quality companies that provide great opportunities for the community. For those companies looking to relocate, we have a qualified workforce with a great work ethic.

In addition to a vibrant workforce within the county, employers have access to a regional workforce of over 2 million workers within the Houston CMSA. You will find some of the most skilled employees in the world right here in our region.

EMPLOYMENT STATUS

Waller County has a proud heritage of hard working citizens. As a rural community we know how to work and deliver a good day's work for a good day's wage.

About 57% of our available workforce commute out of the county to work. That means when a business locates to Waller County, we have an available commuting workforce that may prefer to work locally.
